NOTE:

[redacted] in a letter to the Bureau dated 4/5/68 and two letters dated 4/6/68 discusses the differences in the leadership of the Baptist ministry of which Martin Luther King was a member. She states that one minister, [redacted] reports to be a friend of Kings, but in reality he opposed him for control of the finances and program of the church and poisons people's minds against him. She indicated that [redacted] and [redacted] in Tennessee, who had enjoined King's march, should be investigated in connection with the shooting of King. She has no specifics, and it would appear she has a fixation concerning the [redacted] opposition to King. There is no pertinent information in Bureau files identifiable with [redacted] Her letter is not being answered in writing [redacted]
